

We do NOT need more media conglomerates nor should we enable the current media conglomerates to become bigger. Freedom of speech and journalism have helped this country progress. Big business often does NOT want the truth to be known. Big business owning & operating even bigger media conglomerates will be detrimental to the welfare of this country.